

DAVIS BOZEMAN JOHNSON LAW
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS AT LAW
DECATUR | STATESBORO | SAVANNAH

Harold W. Spence
Partner

Harold W. Spence is an experienced and highly skilled personal injury lawyer who has been providing legal services to individuals and families for over 25 years. He is a partner at Davis Bozeman Johnson Law, where he fights for justice on behalf of clients who have suffered severe injuries, death, or significant violations of their civil or human rights due to the misconduct of individuals and corporate entities.

Spence is a member of the State Bar of Georgia and is authorized to practice in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Georgia, the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia and the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

He has recently won two significant Georgia Court of Appeals cases that benefit plaintiffs in personal injury cases, namely Georgia DOT v. Griggs and Reed v. Carolina Casualty Insurance Company et al. These cases demonstrate Spence's expertise and his unwavering dedication to his clients.

Spence graduated magna cum laude from Morehouse College in Atlanta, Georgia, with a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science. During his time in college, Spence served as the vice president and president of the Student Government Association. He received his Juris Doctor from Rutgers University in Newark, New Jersey, where he was President of the Black Law Students Association.

Spence is a Chattanooga native and the oldest of six children, all of whom are college graduates. He is married to Dr. Cynthia Neal Spence, a professor at Spelman College in Atlanta. They have been married since 1980 and have two daughters, Christie (Ph.D.) and Courtnee (MBA). In his spare time, Harold enjoys reading, sports, music, playing the guitar, and crossword puzzles. He is also a longtime member and trustee at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta. With his extensive experience and impressive track record of success, Harold W. Spence is a lawyer you can trust to fight for your rights.